About

AIU's 39th Inter-University Central Zone Youth Festival 2025-26 (UNIFEST)

In Buddhist philosophy, Metta (Pāli; Sanskrit: Maitrī) signifies loving-kindness, benevolence, and goodwill toward all beings. It is one of the Four Sublime States (Brahmavihāras), along with Karunā (compassion), Mudita (sympathetic joy), and Upekkhā (equanimity).

This five-day cultural celebration will feature vibrant competitions and performances in theatre, music, dance, literature, and fine arts, offering a platform for young artists to express themselves and exchange ideas through the universal language of creativity. The event aims to nurture artistic excellence, cultural understanding, and emotional intelligence among students, aligning with MGM University's vision of blending art, culture, and technology in education.

The festival will also promote the values of teamwork, friendship, and harmony — resonating deeply with the essence of “Metta,” a Buddhist concept of loving-kindness and goodwill toward all beings. By embodying this spirit of compassion and unity, the AIU's 39th Inter-University Central Zone Youth Festival 2025-26 (UNIFEST) at MGM University aspires to inspire youth to see art not merely as performance, but as a pathway toward peace, empathy, and collective growth.

This institution is devoted to extensively impart education and enable the students to stand on their own, strongly believing that “Literary education is of no value if it is not able to build up a sound character.”

With the vision for imparting quality education MGM initiated a chain of institutes with a spectrum ranging from primary schools to post graduate degrees. MGM has been instrumental in promoting Classical Dance & Music, Art, Culture, Heritage and creativity for art seekers. The Trust has also paid heed to the aspect of physical fitness by converting a vast expanse of land into an ultra-modern facility catering to a multitude of sports.
